

You Don't Know the Pain (Hip Hop 04)

You don't know the pain
You don't know the pain
You don't know real pain
Let me explain
You don't know the pain
You don't know the pain
You don't know real pain
Let me explain

You men go and stub your toe
Then you need a nurse
We all out here giving birth
Don't even need to hold my purse

A paper cut will make you cry
Backache you walk like gramps
A splinter makes you want to die
But bitch you try the cramps

You don't know the pain
You don't know the pain
You don't know real pain
Let me explain
You don't know the pain
You don't know the pain
You don't know real pain
Let me explain

Men they want to have it all
But not ever when it hurts
He gets even a little pain
Then he up and deserts

Women they know how to endure
Allow me to explain
Women are tougher than all of you
Cuz' you don't know real pain

You don't know the pain
You don't know the pain
You don't know real pain
Let me explain
You don't know the pain

You don't know the pain
You don't know real pain
Let me explain
You don't know the pain
